DAVIS THEATRE.

Another Big Vaudeville and Photoplay Bill for Next Week.

The bill announced for this cozy theater the first half of next week will be no exception to the usual first class bills already seen here, but will uphold the standard of the shows preceding it. Headed by the vaudeville bill will be DeWolf Hopper, a screaming funny comedy playlet entitled His Prize Package. There are four people in the sketch and if you want a good laugh, you will find it on Monday and you will feel happy for the rest of the week. Next comes Sing Fong, a Chinese comedian and Chinese violinist and humorist. You have heard other Chinese entertainers but he is in a class by himself. Fabre and Walters are a couple of clever entertainers who do a comedy singing and talking skit, full of good songs and witty sayings. Paul Irvine, who presents a character change act giving impersonations of several different characters in a way that always makes him a favorite. The feature playlet is a Thauhouse two reel drama, The Marble Heart, taken from the celebrated play about Silby with Margaret Snow in the leading role, a true work of art. The Keystone comedy, The Kidnapper, is a funny thing for this time. It is a comedy that has already been shown, called Mabel's Awful Mistake, and Desperate Desmond isn't in it with this comedy. The feature playlet is a high class American drama that are always pleasing to look at.

BREED THEATRE.

The End of the Quest, Big Two-Reel Story of Italian Life.

Another instance of true love that does not run smoothly, is told in the splendid Lubin offering at the Breed today. Pietro, a peddler of images, and becomes betrothed to him. Giuseppe, an Americanized country boy, happens along and captivates Rosa with his apparent wealth. He induces her to go to America with him, which she finally consents to. Giuseppe follows her, Pietro follows and finds Rosa and her little babe in want, and at the mother's death adopts the infant. The terrible meeting of the two men occurs in an unlooked for manner, and the picture closes in a tumult of thrilling scenes.

The Birthmark is a superb western story with the scenery and acting. The Fighting Chaplain proving a strong rival. Two excellent Biograph comedies are the laughing features of the bill.

Today is Last Chance to See the Kinemacolor Films at Auditorium.

After today, the Kinemacolor films will be discontinued for the present at the Auditorium, although the management still holds the exclusive rights to this feature for this city and in the future these wonderful color films may be seen again. The management of the Auditorium when they first saw the Kinemacolor, did so with the idea that they were giving the patrons of this house the best moving picture proposition to be obtained, but their efforts were not appreciated except by a few people of discrimination. Starting on Monday the management of the Auditorium will resume the presentation of the best two and three reel feature pictures. CRUST COVERED
HANDS AND ARMS

Up to Elbows. Blotches on Face. Very Disfiguring. Itched and Burned. Could Not Sleep. One Cake Cuticura Soap and One Box Cuticura Ointment Cured.

Montgomery Center, Vt.—"The trouble began with my hands. It looked like chaps, but it kept getting worse until my hands and arms were all covered up. I tried to wash them with soap and water, but it only made them worse. I had a few blotches on my face which were very disfiguring, for when I went out in the cold air they would be dark red and would burn. I suffered with itching and burning nearly all night, and I could not sleep. I could not do my work for the pain my hands would be in when they were in water, and could not stand the heat.

"I tried all sorts of ointment and got no help until I tried Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. I used one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment which cured me so I have had no trouble since. (Signed) Mrs. Joseph Touchette, Jr., Dec. 27, 1911.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment do so much for pimples, blackheads, red, rough skin, itching, scaly scalp, dandruff, dry, thin and falling hair, chapped hands and shapless face that it is the most desirable remedy. Sold throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

W. E. Browning, the man of many talents, and Eddie Fitch and Co., who present "The Different," a vaudeville sketch that's different.

The Call of the Blood, the first Indiana picture made by the Kinemacolor Co. is on today for the last time, and this picture shows what wonderful improvements are being made.
